

JEFF ANDERSON & ASSOCIATES PA
REACHING ACROSS TIME FOR JUSTICE

Media Advisory
April 5, 2021

Virtual Press Event Tomorrow:

More than 300 Alleged Perpetrators
Accused of Child Sexual Abuse in the Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn under the Child Victims Act

Investigation into lawsuits filed under the CVA reveals 570+ involving the Diocese of Brooklyn

(New York, NY) – Tomorrow, over a live moderated virtual press conference attorney Jeff Anderson will:

- Reveal and discuss findings from an investigation into lawsuits filed under the New York Child Victims Act between August 14, 2019 and December 31, 2020 involving the Catholic bishops and dioceses across New York.
- Reveal and discuss repeat, alleged offenders in the Diocese of Brooklyn who are accused of child sexual abuse and identified in lawsuits.
- Reveal and discuss the Catholic institutions and religious orders frequently identified as defendants in lawsuits filed across the state and in the Diocese of Brooklyn.
- Demand that Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio release the names of all diocesan officials who are or were complicit in concealing child sexual abuse, and the names of all known alleged perpetrators accused of child sexual abuse immediately so that survivors may pursue justice under the New York Child Victims Act before the August deadline.

- Introduce a digital dashboard developed by the firm to allow survivors to easily interact with this NY CVA lawsuit analysis.

A moderated Q&A will immediately follow.
